CHARMING NOVEL .-

MARRIAGE A LOTTERY.

By Mrs. Grey, author of "The Rectory Gnest," "The Little Wife," etc. 12me. Cloth, 75 cerus; paper, 50 cents.

"This is an excellent novel, being a tale of Fashionable Life.

The fair writer is not unknown to literary fame, being the an hor of several ropular novels, but in this she seems to have surpassed 'Marriage' abounds in natural descriptions of ordinary incidents daily occurring among the Summer residents on the English coest, and the interest arises from the saturainess of the web of intrigue which Mrs. Grey weaves. She is a very pleasing writer, and should be an excellent, kind-hearted woman, for she paints all her characters conleur de rose, and perpetrates but few libels against her own sex, so very different from the great mass of her co-literaires, who fancy they can best pourtray women kind by making most of them devils incarnate. 'Mar-riage'is size a lively tale, and cannot fail of rewarding the enterprise of the American publishers, who have thus cheaply pisced it before the public." [British Whig Kingston, Canada. MRS. BERCHER STOWE'S OFINION.

In the N. Y. Independent, Mrs. Stowe volunteers the following commendation of the work:

"We have by as another work—the Life of Amos Lawrence.
We heard it once said in the pulpit. 'There is no work of art like a noble life;' and for that reason he who has achieved one takes rank with great artists and bearon as the world's property. We are proud of thus book. We are willing to let it go forth to other lands as a specimen of what America can produce. In the old world, reviewers have casted Baroum the characteristic American man—he is one fruit of our soil, but Amos Lawrence is another. Let our country have credit for him sloo. The good effect which this Life may have in determining the course of young men to honor and virtue is incolculable, unprincipled career of Baroum, in which success covers a multitude of sins, they have equal reason to desire to see the fore their sons the life of another man who arose from nothing by exactly opposite courses. This borrephy shows another thing—that there is a Christian life in white all sects agree—a basic of union, not dectinal but practical, where these may be a real unity. Men of such lives have risen now and then in all sects, and when found, disputants have sareed in admirting their practical example as an exponent of the religion about which they was gle."

C A S T E;

A STORY OF REPUBLICAN EQUALITY. By Sydney A. Story, Jr.
In one large vol., 1 mo. 549 pp. Price ±1 25.

This powerful Anti-Slavery Novel will swaken the attention of the public to a new phase of the great question of the 4day.

To those who would be repelled by a tale of wrongs and attrocities, however true they might be, the publishers desire to asy, that this is in the best sense a novel—a love story, if the reader pleares—relating to the fortunes of persons belonging to the Privileged Class. The condition of the Southern Slave is not the theme of the bock. It is true the author has written with a purpose, but it does not lie upon the surface; and the reflective reader will find that its force fails quite as much upon Northern as upon Southern society. now in existence, organized in 1842, comprising the entire troups—Earle H. Pierce N. W. Gould, A. J. Vass, J. W. Rayner, B. Mailort, J. Murphy, Lewis Mairs, J. B. Donniker, T. Christian, W. P. Collins, and H. Huntington—most respect-T. Christian. W. P. Collins, and H. Huntington—most respectfulls announce to their patrons in Brooklyn two only of their chasts ard musical Softres with a new programme throughout, replete with new Musical Gems, new Character Dunces, new Burleeques—"The Hutchinson Family" and "The Italian Opera"—some new quizzical, quiet and queer Bon Mots; in fact, a hittle of everything and everybody.

Admission 25 cents. o'cleck pricisely.
PARTICULAR NOTICE.—The above-named company have now no a maction with E. P. Christy.
On TUESDAY EVENING, Nov. 13, the above company perform at the Odeon, Williamsburgh. reader will find that is locally as upon Southern society.

MODERN PILGRIMS.

bewing the Improvements in Travel, and the Newset Method Reaching the Celestial City. By George Wood, author Peter Schlemhl in America. In two vois; 12mg. Price of "Peter Schlemihl in America." In two yors, came of 175.

The idea of this work was suggested to the author by the imitable. "Celestial Railroad" of Haw horne. But in the application of the icea to the religious societies of m.dern times, the author is indebted to no one. It is a continuous story of the pilgrimage of some cultivared and plously disposed people, in which they visit in ture various cities, casaies, and habels, representing the leading religious denominations. But no description can do the work justice. It is full of trenchant satire upon lite, manners, and opinioes, and at the same time it has much of petics which cannot but awaken sympathy.

This work will make a sensation in the religious world. It is proper to add that the author takes the same standpoint with honest Jahn Bunyan.

NELLIE OF TRURO.

By the author of "Yars; Or, The Child of Adoption."

I'mo. Price $1.

A New York correspondent of The Louisville Journal having examined the proof-sheets of this work, writes that:

"It is an earnest and truthful story of progressive childhood under all its varied influences of circumstance, association and opinion. Little Nellie is delightful in her innocent gayety and her unforced nature; impulsive, ardeas and confiding, her heart instinctively opens to the hand of affection, from which the good seed is scattered which afterward bears its aperopriste fruit in her life. The other characters are happily delineated, each preserving its peculiar individuality. Life, in its daily reatine of action, is unfolded on the page. The courtly, poished man of the world is ever seen clothed in the politaness of his easts. The warm-hearted, eccentric philanthropist figures humorously with his oddities; and the genile, Christian pastor, placed in contradistinction with the thundering Soanerges of the pulpit, succeeded in making manifest his quiet power."

EXTRACT FROM THE PREYACE:

"The 'Council of Ten' of Venice, that infamous oligarchy, kept no record of its proceeding. The informer, the accusation, the proce, were strictly conceased in the bosom of the logislition, and no efficial declaration of motives, cance, or reasons, astrified an elamed public of the grounds of banishment or execution. The enden disappearance of the proce ided victim, his quit dropping beneath he silent waters of the Laguar, were slit hat indicated a trial, a conviction, or the sangularity perpensation of the despotic sentence."
